CF EVANS TENURE

2026- Present

As Vice President of Business Development, Charles Blankinship leads CF Evans' growth strategy across the Southeast, focusing on relationship-driven pursuits and long-term partnerships in the commercial, education, industrial, mixed-use, and multifamily markets.

He brings more than 20 years of construction-related business development experience, built across leadership roles at several respected Southeast builders.

On Your Project, Charles:

- Aligns every pursuit with the client's goals from the first conversation
- Collaborates with developers, architects, engineers, and brokers to shape opportunities early
- Connects owners to the right CF Evans preconstruction and operations resources
- Stays engaged in regional development trends through ULI, NAIOP, and NCEDA
